ANNOUNCEMENTS

FEBRUARY TIDELINES: The February issue of Tidelines is now available online at cadbayuc.org or there are a few paper copies around the church. There is lots going on in the next few months so please take some time to read through.

2018 TAX RECEIPTS: Tax receipts are available for pick up in the Narthex. If you donated to CBUC online through our website (Canada Helps) they will have issued you a tax receipt for your donation already. Tax receipts that aren't picked up today, will be mailed out, so please pick yours up today and save us the postage.

☺ Thank you all for your faithful support last year and for your ongoing support this year.

INTERCULTURAL WORKSHOP: After worship and Soup Sunday today, there will be our monthly Intercultural Workshop led by Julie Ng here in the sanctuary. The topic continues to be a look at Canadian Culture.

JOIN THE "THE HOLY WALKAMOLIES" team on February 23 for the annual Coldest Night of the Year Fundraising Walk.: The national walk raises awareness and raises money for charities serving hungry, homeless, and hurting people in our community. Last year, the event helped raise $40,000 for Our Place. This year CBUC and St. Aidan's are walking under the same team name- the Cadboro Bay and St. Aidan's United Churches HOLY WALKAMOLIES. If you'd like to walk, register here:

<https://cnoy.org/location/victoria/Pandora> Note: there is a registration fee of $25/person until Feb. 18th when it becomes $40/person. Suggested fundraising target: $150/adult or $75/youth. If you are unable to walk, consider making a donation to the team. Thanks! Questions? Contact Maureen Koch at maureenkoch76@gmail.com or Susan Draper at graceful@shaw.ca Go team go!

CONGREGATIONAL AGM on Sunday Feb 24th following worship. Annual report is now available online at www.cadbayuc.org/cbuc-online/ for you to preview along with budget and financial statements. There will also be a motion coming from the joint council meeting regarding an affirmation of the vision statement as the foundation for our work going forward. All these documents are available online. A sign up for printed copies is in the Narthex.

SPIRITUAL PRACTICES FAIR: February 17 - Come and find out what spiritual practices other people use to deepen their spiritual connection on February 17 during coffee hour in the Hall. Seven spiritual practices will be highlighted and you will have a chance to ask questions of those who are available to explain the practices. Hopefully you can try several of these practices during the weeks of Lent.

OBSERVER MAGAZINE: If you are not currently receiving the Observer, the United Church's monthly magazine, and you would like to be receiving it, please contact Meghan in the office. 250-477-2715 or meghan@cadbayuc.org

HEALING PATHWAY WORKSHOP - PHASE 1: The Phase 1 workshop is being held at Cadboro Bay United Church on May 3rd, 4th, and 5th, 2019. Instructors are Ross White and Jannice Foreman. Come be in community and share new learnings together about energy and self-care.

SOUP SUNDAY: Today after worship join us for a light lunch of homemade soup and a bun. There is no cost and you are invited to sit in the hall with new friends from the congregation to enjoy a longer conversation over a meal. Vegan and Gluten Free options are always included in the choices.

FAMILY FUN NIGHT – Feb 19th @ 5pm: Join us for a delicious meal, community engagement, and fun on Tues the 19th from 5-7pm. This evening will focus around making art together as a community. There will be something for everyone of all ages and family size.

SHROVE TUESDAY PANCAKE SUPPER: We have been invited to join St. Aidan's for their pancake supper again this year. March 5th at 6pm at St. Aidan's Campus. After a delicious meal of pancakes and sausage there will be an Ash Wednesday Service. Admission is by donation.
